David Dayringer Selected as Fayetteville Fire Chief - Mayor Lionel Jordan announced today the selection of David Carter Dayringer as Fayetteville Fire Chief to begin in January of 2010. Dayringer served as Deputy Chief for the Tulsa Fire Department, where he served for 28 years. During his service, he managed the Support Services and Safety Services Sections and filled in as Fire Chief during the Chief's absence in a department with a 712 member Fire Department that serves a city of 380,000 citizens and covers 214 square miles. Dayringer was also certified as an Oklahoma Law Enforcement Officer. Positions held during his tenure at the Tulsa Fire Department included Firefighter, FEO, Captain, L176 Union President, Training Chief, Deputy Chief of Support Services, and Fire Marshal. The Safety Services Section, in which he served as Deputy Chief, includes the Branches of Code Enforcement, Arson Investigation, and Public Education. As the head of a local branch of the L-176, he assisted with employee and management relations. He also served as Deputy Chief of Support Services, which includes the Training Branch, the EMS Branch, the Physical Resources and Safety Branch, the Finance Branch, and Information Technology Branch, and he oversaw a departmental budget of 53 to 64 million dollars annually. Dayringer received an A.S. Fire Protection Technology from TCC and received a B.S. Industrial Operation at NSU in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He is also a graduate of the NFA EFO and a Chief Fire Officer Designate from the Commission on Professional Credentialing and holds certification as a NREMT Basic. Mayor Lioneld Jordan said, "David provides the best expertise, leadership, relationship-building, vision, and overall fit with Fayetteville. We were impressed with him. He has strong credentials and a great deal of training. He was the top choice of the 6-member Selection Committee, and he is MY top choice." <http://www.iafflocal2866.org/>
